

Interpreting the Constitution

CONTENT CRITERIA	UNSATISFACTORY	PROFICIENT	ADVANCED
TEKS: 30.A Primary Sources 30.B Sequences, Cause and Effect, Comparing & Contrasting, Inferences, & Conclusions 30.D Point of View from a Historical Context 30.E Point of View on an Issue or Event 32.A Problem Solving Process 32.B Decision Making Process I.B Sequencing 15.D Constitutional Principles 20.A Unalienable Rights 23.A Leadership Qualities 23.B Contributions of Major Leaders 16.A Amending the Constitution 19.B Bill of Rights 19.C Personal Responsibility 19.D-F Citizenship 23. A-E Social Issues	Is missing (2) or more items from the Proficient Category. Is not Formatted Correctly or has more than 10 spelling/grammar errors. Does not include a majority and a dissenting opinion supported by researched fact. Lacks direction (i.e. rambles incessantly without ever making a clear point). Included plagiarized or incorrectly cited material. Lacks an annotated bibliography in MLA format. Formatting for Documents: 1" Margins 1.5 Line Spacing 12 - point font	Formatted correctly & Includes a Cover Sheet & Annotated Bibliography in MLA format. Presentation and written opinions clearly and correctly reflect in-depth research on the assigned topic. Includes a majority opinion and dissenting opinion with supporting opinions (on either side) by each group member. Reflects in-depth knowledge of the Constitution. Your opinions MUST reference the constitutional support for your decision. Presentation provides a basic overview of the issue, current events, the background of the legislation, and an overview of the majority and dissenting opinions. Bibliography contains a minimum of 10 sources.	Includes Everything from the Proficient Category AND: Majority and dissenting opinions clearly resemble those which would have been developed by the Supreme Court. Multi-media presentation is professional and free of grammatical, spelling, and grammar errors. Individual opinion reflects deep constitutional knowledge (including functions of government) and analysis as well as use of primary sources and refers to this knowledge correctly throughout. Bibliography contains 15 or more sources, cited correctly in MLA format, with concise annotation.
	0 ----- 35 ----- 69	70 ----- 80 ----- 89	90 ----- 95 ----- 100